

Crisis Support Services

Directions:

1. Using all available resources, research and categorize the various types of crises and their effects on individuals and families.
2. Determine strategies for prevention and management of these problems and crises.
3. Research organizations which can provide support to individuals and families experiencing these crises.
4. Write a one-page paper detailing your findings.
5. Attach a citation sheet listing all sources used.
6. Fill out the chart on the following page regarding the supportive organizations you located in your search.

Crisis Support Services

Crisis Situation	Organization Name	Phone Number	Website	Resources & Services Available