

Stress Management

Directions:

Think about the school year. What are the most stressful times? Is it the end of the semester when finals are beginning? Is the beginning of the year when everything is new? In one page, briefly summarize what you consider to be the stressors in your life and how you choose to manage the stress they bring. How did you come up with these techniques?