

Technology Use At Home

Directions:

1. Name five technologies you use at home which have become popular in the past 10 years.
2. Write down the function of each technology and how your life would be different without it.
3. Share your list with other students.