

Ethics & Counseling

Directions:

Assume the role of a school counselor. If one of your students confessed he or she was contemplating suicide, what would you do? Research the ethical and legal responsibilities of such a situation. In two to three pages, describe the responsibilities. Also include how these responsibilities may differ from how you would want to handle the situation as a counselor. Cite your sources.